

11 Bells

11 Bells is conceived as a musical dream sequence in 12 parts. I guess you could call it a concept album despite it being about 30 years too late for such things. Who cares? I hope you enjoy listening to it at least half as much as I enjoyed making it. By the way, Boris and Luigi are seagulls.

- A: The Pool Of Dreams
- B: Boris & Luigi's Tale
- C: The Judges' Quintille
- D: Lost In A Moonlit Desert
- E: Warehouse 23 (In-The-Middle-Ature)
- F: Lazy Swamp-Dogs
- G: The Thief Of Time
- H: Migrating Coconuts
- I: The Angry Pirates' Dance
- J: 5773811 : The Identity Parade
- K: Glen & Heather's Wedding
- L: Finale ("...or was it?")

Purple is a musical recording project by Dan Hodgson, using a mixture of real, sampled, and synthesized sounds; all played, performed and/or programmed by Dan. Written by Dan (except for a few obvious homages to traditional tunes). Recorded, engineered and produced by Dan. Oh, and cover photography and artwork also all by Dan who obviously has control issues or some form of megalomania.
